

I would be opposed to the expansion of the LPFM service. Stations that currently use translators would be negatively impacted and I listen to several stations that use translators.

I would not want to lose those stations!
Please reconsider expanding the scope and use of LPFM stations that might displace translator stations that are currently in use.

Thank you for your consideration